Certainly. Once the Findings of Fact are filed, they have 90+ days to comply. It's the standard procedure and the County has agreed to work with them so long as they're making progress.

But I will wait. Let me know if you want a copy of the Findings of Fact, this is what was on the consent calendar. I am not sure what language the property owner is referring to.

Thanks for the quick response.

Continue it for 30 days. I am gone tomorrow. Applicant thinks this give us the right to shut him down at any time. He would be there with an attorney and it would waste Board's time and they would continue it anyway because I will not be there.

Let's look at the language and make our clear intent clearer

Sorry for the mixup.

Hello Supervisor Ashley/ Ms. Rose:

It has come to my attention that "Cabazon/Dino" agenda item has been continued for 30 days. This item is not a public hearing. It is simply the Findings of Fact from the prior hearing that needs to be included in the block motion, signed by the Chairman and recorded. This document is just a formality from the prior public hearing and needs to be finalized.

If possible, please place it back on the agenda as item 2.6 on the Consent Calendar. Not a public hearing item, just routine Findings of Fact.
